T. H. REED DIES AT FORT THOMAS, KY.

Identified With Business Interests Of Rushville For A Period Of Almost Forty Years

LEFT HERE TWO YEARS AGO

Deceased Interested In Telephone And Gas Companies During Active Business Life

Theodore H. Reed, age seventy years, pioneer business man of Rushville, died at his home in Fort Thomas Kentucky, Tuesday evening. The message was received here about 10:30 o'clock.

Mr. Reed, who had been residing in Fort Thomas for the past two years, had been in failing health since October, 1921, when he suffered a stroke of paralysis, from the effects of which he never fully recovered.

Mr. Reed was identified with the business interests of Rushville for a period of almost forty years. He came to this city from St. Paul, Shelby county, in 1882 and remained until the later part of 1920 when he retired from the active management of the elevator business, which has since been conducted by his son, Rich Reed, who was his partner.

Mr. Reed during his residence in Rushville was large stockholder and director of the Rushville Natural Gas company, a stockholder in the Rushville National bank, a director for a number of years of the Rushville Telephone company, conducted the Flash Stock farm for the training of fast horses and also operated a farm of 170 acres two miles east of the city. The deceased was president of the Board of Trade when this institution was in operation here and at one time a member of the Riverside Park company. Mr. Reed also served as a member of the city school board for one term, having been elected in 1896.

Mr. Reed learned the elevator business as a boy and continued actively engaged in the same line from his youth until two years ago. He was born in Shelby county, near St. Paul, July 5, 1852, the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. R. Reed, and when he was only four years old, his father opened an elevator at St. Paul. When the elder Mr. Reed died November, 21, 1893, he had built up a reputation as being one of the foremost grain men in Indiana.

In 1870, at the age of eighteen years, having learned the business under his father, Mr. Reed went to Greensburg and engaged in the elevator business for eight years, returned to St. Paul in 1878 where he

ENGLAND ACCEPTS AMERICAN DEBT TERMS

Settlement Includes Funding Of More Than Four Billion Dollars Of British Debt

WILL RUN FOR 62 YEARS

London, Jan. 31.—Great Britain today accepted American terms for payment of the debt to the United States.

This decision was reached after Stanley Baldwin, chancellor of the exchequer, had made a report at Washington for settlement of the debt question. The full cabinet has been in session for only a few minutes at No. 10 Downing Street when the official announcement was made.

The terms of the settlement includes funding of more than four billion dollars of the British debt to the United States.

Settlement in sixty-two years with interest at three percent for the first ten years and three and one half percent thereafter, a onehalf of one percent at the same time being paid to provide for extinguishment of the principal.

Between the time the debt was contracted in 1917 and the date of final settlement of the funding terms the British will be charged only for 1 and one fourth per cent interest instead of five per cent specified in the demand notes held by the government cemetery.

Jess Vogel, age 21, years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Vogel, living one-fourth of a mile north of New Salem, was removed to the Dr. Sexton hospital here Tuesday following an accident Monday in which he was seriously injured.

While employed on the farm, he was kicked in the face by a horse, the blow knocking out three of his teeth and breaking his jaw bone. He was in great pain when brought to the hospital, but no serious complications are expected as the result of the accident, it is stated.

ROB PASSENGERS OF CASH, JEWELRY

Two Masked Bandits Hold Up Martinsville Interurban Car Near Maywood Tuesday Night

SHOT SHATTERS HEADLIGHT

Robbers Jerk Off Trolley Wire And Line Passengers Up In Darkness And Search Them

Indianapolis, Ind. Jan. 31.—Twenty passengers on a Martinsville interurban were held up by two masked robbers last night near Maywood and robbed of $1,000 in cash and jewelry.

Shots from the bandits guns rang out at stop three just south of Maywood. There was a screeching of brakes and the car came to a stop. The trolley was jerked off the wire and the car thrown in darkness.

All passengers were ordered out of the car and lined up. While one of the bandits covered them with a revolver, the other hurriedly searched them. The only one they missed was motorman Ollie Smith of Martinsville. The man behind the gun spoke to his companion just as Smith was to have been searched. The fellow turned away and apparently thought he had finished the job.

"Hyah Doc," the searcher said to Dr. Comer of Mooresville, but the doctor was not able to recognize the man.

After the search, all were ordered back into the car and the trolley was replaced on the wire. One of the bandits went into the car and found a watch that a passenger had attempted to conceal under a suspendor.

One of the shots shattered the headlight on the interurban. The others entered the front and rear ends of the car without injuring anyone.

Sheriff George Snider and the police department passed the buck back and forth today over the question of who shall conduct and investigation of the crime and assume responsibility of finding the robbers.

SHOWS BREADTH OF CHRISTIANITY

W. M. McClean Work Says it Broad Enough For all Nations, all Conditions, all Temperments

FIRST OF SERMON SERIES

Evangelist at United Presbyterian Church Throws out Challenge to Men and Women

Before a crowd that filled the auditorium of the First United Presbyterian church, Tuesday night, the Rev. W. McClean Work of Richmond threw out a challenge to men and women looking for something worth all their energy and enthusiasm and talent, saying that Christianity alone was big enough to satisfy a date for a trial.

Mr. Work, who is conducting a two weeks series of meetings in the local church, began a series of four sermons Tuesday night on the theme, "The Four Dimensions of Salvation."

The subject of the first sermon was "The Breadth of Salvation". The text for the entire series is in Ephesians 3:18, "That ye may comprehend with all saints what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height."

The speaker said in part: "It is characteristic of the large minded Paul that he should have begun this characterization of the genius of Christianity with the word breadth. If salvation were confined to a few persons of a certain nation or condition or temperament or creed, then whether it were long or deep or high would be of no interest to the others of us. So first of all he would give us the scope of it.

"It is broad enough for all nations. All other religions have been to a large extent local. They have no appeal to the people in other parts of the world from which they had arisen. They have all failed of world conquest because they did not fit all peoples. And yet today the sun never sets upon the followers of the Christian faith.

"It is broad enough for all conditions. King and peasant, scholar and African Hottentot, society leaders and scrub women all find the consummation of their ideals, the end of their hopes in Jesus of Nazareth.

"It is broad enough for all temperaments. There are three old men in Old Testament history of whose sepulchre we have record. They are Enoch the mystic, Moses the practical and Elijah the impulsive. God appealed to Enoch through his heart, to Moses through his mind, to Elijah through his will and God still uses

GLENWOOD SCHOOL PRINCIPAL EXPIRES

James A. Fisher, Former Superintendent of Franklin County Schools, Dies of Paralysis

SUFFERED STROKE FRIDAY

James A. Fisher, principal of the Glenwood schools, expired Tuesday night about ten o'clock, at his home in Glenwood, following a stroke of paralysis, which he suffered Friday night.

The deceased was 58 years old, and was well known in this part of the state. He taught school in Glenwood several years ago, but resigned there five years ago, and became county school superintendent of the Franklin county schools at Brookville. Last year he came back to Glenwood and became principal of the schools until his death.

His condition following the stroke was regarded as critical, and little hope had been held for his recovery. He is survived by the widow and two sons, Park and Gilbert.

The services will be held Thursday morning at 9:30 in Glenwood, and burial will take place at Letts Corner, near Greensburg, his native home.

GRAND JURY TO BE CALLED

Custom is to Alternate Sessions of Investigators Every Other Term of Court

The two juries for the February term of court, which convenes on Monday, was drawn late Tuesday, including 12 jurors for the petit jury and six jurors for the grand jury. The court calendar for the new term of court has not been completed, and only a few matters are given a date for a trial.

The February term is one in which the grand jury is in session, as it is the custom here to alternate with every other session for the grand jury.

The twelve names drawn for the regular panel for the petit jury, are as follows: L. A. Ward and William Cambren of Jackson township; Fred Bills, Washington; David O. Alter, Orange; Charles J. Fisher and Francis H. McCoy, Rushville; Thomas Bishop and Minor Bell, Union; Alonzo Kiser, Ripley; Ora E. Chance, Center; Claude Adams and Charles E. Cassidy, Walker.

The six named for grand jury service is as follows: Sylvester Kirkpatrick, Charles Baker and Arra W. Bennett, Rushville; Zack Small, Posey; Omer Greenwood, Washington and John M. Brown of Walker.

Only a few court cases have been set for trial during the early part of February, but the calendar will be completed in a few days. The cases set now include the following:

Feb. 5—Calling docket and issues. Feb. 7—State vs Hughes. Feb. 9—Young vs Carr. Feb. 10—Hodges Branch drain. Feb. 12—Seuntry Co., vs Martindale. Feb. 14—Ziegler vs Kirkpatrick. Feb. 16—State vs Nolan (2 cases). Feb. 21—State vs Clevenger.

PIECE OF SKULL IS REMOVED IN OPERATION

Tom Hammond Of Cracker Ridge, Near Laurel, Struck In Head With Butt End Of Revolver

WHITE MULE GETS THE BLAME

Tom Hammond, age about 30 years a resident of Cracker Ridge, near Laurel, was rushed to the Dr. Sexton hospital here Tuesday night, to undergo an operation for the removal of a piece of skull, and unless complications arise, the physicians are hopeful for his recovery.

According to the report, Hammond and another man of that community had overimbibed in "white mule" one night recently, and in a controversy which followed, Hammond was struck over the forehead with the butt-end of a revolver, and his skull was crushed above the nose.

Dr. H. P. Metcalf of New Salem attended his injuries, which at first were not regarded as being serious, but the young man did not recover as well as expected. He continued to grow worse and was brought here to undergo an operation on his skull to remove a piece of the bone.

Dr. Metcalf reported today that the patient was getting along as well as could be expected, and had a chance for recovery.

FOOT IS BADLY MASHED

Guy Abercrombie, 613 North Perkins street, is suffering from an injury sustained when a large iron lid of a "man hole" was dropped on his left foot, severely mashing it. Mr. Abercrombie is compelled to use crutches in walking.

THEFT INQUIRY CONTINUES

Railroad Detectives At Work On Manilla Station Robbery

No arrests have been made yet in the robbery of the Pennsylvania railroad station at Manilla, and railroad detectives today were working on the case, and investigating several alleged clues, which might assist them in their work.

Sheriff Hunt, who was in Madison on business yesterday was expected to assist the railroad officers today. It will be recalled that the station was entered Monday night, and although nothing was taken, bloodhounds followed a scent to Homer, where they were withdrawn from the tracks, which were said to be leading to a suspect.

ASSESSMENT BILL KILLED IN HOUSE

Provide For Immediate Reassessment of Real Estate, But Was Changed in Committee

TWO BILLS BY SEN. HILL

Measure to Protect Consumers, of Which Rush County Legislator is Author, Passes Senate

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 31.—By a vote of 50 to 47 the state house of representatives today killed the Collins-Jones bill which provides for an immediate assessment of real estate throughout Indiana.

The bill provided that real estate shall be reassessed in 1923 and in 1927 when originally introduced, but the years were changed by the committee on county and township business to read 1925 and 1929.

A bill similar to the one introduced in the house, which would repeal the law authorizing Indiana cities to adopt the city managers form of government, was introduced by Senator R. H. Hill of Carthage. The bill provides that cities now operating under the city managers would not be affected. Senator Hill said he introduced the bill because the few cities which have voted on the question, except Michigan City, have rejected the new form of government.

Anyone selling coal, coke, hay or straw must furnish a delivery ticket with each wagon load showing gross and net weight and quality of material, according to the bill which passed in the senate by a vote of 38 to 3. The bill was introduced by Senator Hill and now goes to the lower house.

The change of the name of the Indiana Soldiers and Sailors Orphans Home at Knightstown to the "Memorial School for Indiana Soldiers and Sailor's Orphans," is specified in a bill introduced by Senator

The hair is rough, has little or no appetite, coughs more or less and goes backward every day. Thousands of pigs and hogs die from worms every year. This can all be prevented by the feeding of ACME WORM BOUNCER from birth to maturity.

COUGH—There are many things that will cause the hogs to cough. Feeding it in dust, sleeping in a straw pile and taking cold, and even bronchitis, and in many cases worms cause cough.

Do not wait until your hogs and pigs are dying with WORMS and HOG CHOLERA, and then try to get through without heavy losses—you cannot do it.

CORPORALS ARE HELD IN PAYROLL ROBBERY

Two Accused of Stealing $42,000 at Langley Field and Kidnapping
Army Men in Charge

ALL BUT $2,800 RECOVERED

Norfolk, Va., Jan. 31—Corporals John S. Wood, 27, and James Harvey, 24, were held by army authorities at Langley Field today on a charge of theft of the post's $42,000 payroll and kidnapping of the five army men in charge of the money.

The capture was effected last night, ten hours after the holdup took place. The men were caught single handed by Robert Dewey, New York City, a visitor at Langley Field, who was deputized by a magistrate. Dewey, with Lieutenant Clarence Horton, stopped an automobile three miles from Hampton in which the soldiers were travelling. Dewey ordered both men out, disarmed them and marched them to his machine, in which they were taken to Hampton and turned over to the police.

The money with the exception of $2,800 was recovered. It was found in small amounts in different parts of the men's clothing, it was said.

The men will be given a court martial at Langley Field, army authorities announced.

and using men in his kingdom.

It is broad enough for all creeds. Creeds are peculiarly the property of churches so that there may be continuity in their service. Men may differ on the theory of inspiration but they have the same Christ. They may differ upon modes of baptism but they have the same Christ. They differ upon the sacrament of the Lord's Supper but they have the same Christ. They may differ upon the systems of church government but they have the same Christ.

Christianity is the only thing this world contains that is worthy the investment of the last ounce of your energy, the last atom of your talent and it will pay you more dividends than anything else in which you can spend yourself."

Mr. Work will preach tonight on "The Length of Salvation." Services begin at 7:30.

If the weather is fair there will be special music at the services Thursday night. The quartette from the Reid Memorial church of Richmond will be present and will give three special numbers. This is the church of which the Rev. Mr. Work who is preaching is the pastor.

The quartette is composed of Miss Pearl Crubaugh, soprano; Mrs. Wilson Magaw, contralto; Frank Funk, tenor and Hugh Foss, Baritone. Mrs. Hugh Foss is the organist. Three of the four members of the quartette are soloists.

To Increase Scope of Race Bill

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 31—Efforts to prohibit all forms of entertainment on Memorial Day were launched today by Marion county posts of the American Legion as a backfire to the bill pending in the Indiana legislature which would stop the annual 500-mile automobile races and other commercial sporting events on Memorial Day.

The move was a sequel to the fight which caused a breach in the Indiana department of the Legion and threatened a rump organization.

Commanders of county Legion posts meeting last night adopted resolutions which would seek to amend the bill so as to increase the scope of the race bill and make it include all forms of entertainment. The commanders were strong in opposition to the bill and their action was taken as a means of bringing about its defeat in the face of declarations by State Commander Perry Faulkner that the Legion endorses it.

Faulkner had threatened to suspend posts who deviated from the outlined course of the Legion in its position on the measure. The commanders voted however to stand firm in their fight against it and take the consequences. Faulkner had not taken definite action toward carrying out his threat, which was characterized in the meeting at "despotic," "un-American," "unconstitutional," and "unwarranted."

WISDOM FOR THE ASKING:
—If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God that giveth to all men, liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him.—James 1: 5.

Opposition Grows

The sentiment against the county unit bill introduced in the state legislature, proposing a radical change in county school administration, apparently has sounded the death of the measure. From every quarter comes the objection that since the bill provides for such a decided change in the methods of conducting the schools, it should be given more serious deliberation than is possible to give to it during the short time the legislature is in session.

If the bill is defeated, certainly the suggestions that are contained in the school survey made by experts should not be lost, because they were obtained at great expense at the instance of the legislature two years ago. They might be used at a later date although it is possible that they would not be applicable two years hence.

Some of those who oppose the bill are using unfair methods, however, in alluding to the fact that the township trustees just elected would be legislated out of office. This is not the case as the measure provides they shall continue in control of the schools until their term of office expires.

It Helps Some

Women's dresses this season are long—quite long.

That is good for the manufacturer who makes the materials, and for the modiste who makes the gowns. It gives them more to do.

And incidentally there is a distinct improvement in the optical trade.

Men are discarding their glasses, or having new lenses inserted.

There isn't so much to see now. And glasses that magnify at a distance are not so much in demand. Every change helps some, either way it goes.

Prison For Commercialized Vice

The death of a leading movie actor as a result of addiction to drugs will cause a momentary and somewhat hysterical crusade against the drug peddlers, after which the traffic will be permitted to go on under a system of light fines that merely serves as a substitute for a license system. Nothing but jail sentences will ever effectively check a class of crimes conducted on a commercial basis.

Profits, Not Credits, The Need

It is truthfully remarked by a contemporary that you cannot borrow yourself out of debt. Therein is a sufficient demonstration that credit legislation is one of the least of the needs of the farmer. Quite likely the paper farmers and political farmers have been the leaders in emphasizing the importance of farm credits. The dirt farmer, who has the paying to do, is not so much interested in credit as he is in profits. He is getting only 35 cents of the dollar the consumer pays for his products, and he wants more. How to get more of the dollar, is his chief concern.

PEOPLE'S SAYSO

As to The County Unit School Law

With your permission, I would like to have a little say as to the county unit school bill now pending before the state legislature.

A few short years ago an edict went out from the state board of health that the little red school house was unsanitary and would have to be supplanted with something better, and then the township trustee must haul all pupils of a certain age, and of a specific distance from school, all of which the township trustee did like good little boy. And mind you, the "dear people" had not a word to say about it. All of this cost the "dear people" millions of dollars and in some places the buildings are not done yet. I saw a house recently that I was told was not quite completed.

I was told all of this had created a bonded debt in the townships of the state that will take years to pay. By that time these will have an entire new set of new school officers with new and improved and up-to-date school ideas and supplant these antiquated schools that may be in existence under this proposed efficient and up-to-date school system.

I have been a close observer of the school system of our state for thirty years and have heard quite a number of our school people talk on an extol the wonderful efficiency of our school system and the efficient girls and boys we are turning out every year splendidly equipped to meet the duties and responsibilities of life as men and women of the near future.

Assuming that school survey commission (which I am told cost the state $15,000) is right in its deduction, who is to blame? Certainly not the people, for as pointed out above, they gave like good little men; they gave everything they were asked to give. Who let the state get down to 17th place? When big business gets a man not up to their requirements, they let him out. The similitude is obvious. Why not the same procedure in public business?

I met and had quite a talk with the State Superintendent of Public Instruction recently (Mr. Burris). Among other objections submitted to him, as well as those hinted at above, was the question of added cost with resulting increase in tax. He tried to tell me that it would not increase the taxes. My mind reverts back four years when Jim Goodrich gained the present "Scientific tax" bill through the legislature and when the "dear people" realized what had been done to them they raised a holly and a justified howl. So when the "dear people" wake up to the true significance of the situation if this bill becomes a law with the added expense that is bound to follow, I think there will be a mild protest at least.

It seems to me, too, that it would be quite a talk with the State Superintendent of Public Instruction recently (Mr. Burris). Among other objections submitted to him, as well as those hinted at above, was the question of added cost with resulting increase in tax. He tried to tell me that it would not increase the taxes. My mind reverts back four years when Jim Goodrich gained the present "Scientific tax" bill through the legislature and when the "dear people" realized what had been done to them they raised a holly and a justified howl. So when the "dear people" wake up to the true significance of the situation if this bill becomes a law with the added expense that is bound to follow, I think there will be a mild protest at least.

It seems to me, too, that it would be the rankest kind of injustice to the trustees elected last fall after they had spent their time and money to get elected and then of the only duty connected with the office that their is any honor in (the schools) and subject them in a large measure ultimately to state control, as is our present tax control.

In conclusion, Mr. Editor, for the sake of argument let me admit that this proposed school law will do what is claimed for it (which I do not for a minute admit, in view of what I have said in this article) is it an opportune time in view of the great expense, time and inconvenience that the building of these splendid new school buildings has entailed upon the people and but a few of them paid for yet, to launch such radical and sweeping change in our public school system?

The occupation of the Ruhr has settled down to a conflict over control of the railroads. Coal is choking the pit-heads and smothering possibilities of further production. Unless it is moved soon mining will have to cease.

The Germans refuse to get transportation in working condition, operate towers or guard the main line. German rail workers met each appearance of the military with a prompt strike. Railway men of the Mayence district proclaimed a walkout this morning.

France and Belgium have reached an agreement whereby General Degoutte shall have supreme command in the Ruhr until two commissioners, one French the other Belgium are appointed and take up joint control at Dusseldorf.

General Degoutte's first act was to warn inhabitants of the newly occupied areas that more drastic measures of repression may be expected shortly if the Germans continue their hostile attitude of passive resistance. This the citizens of the Ruhr did today, showing no sign of yielding to French threats. Reports from Dusseldorf indicated the Germans there were planning fresh sabotage.

French intend to stay

Dusseldorf Jan. 31—The French intend to stay in the Ruhr until German profiteers have given up a portion of their immense war profits for reconstruction of devastated France, General Degoutte declared in a statement to the press today.

The Germans were mistaken, the statement said if they thought French patience was unlimited.

"The German government has done its utmost to create general rebellion in the Ruhr," Degoutte declared. "Wisdom of the workmen has checked this plan.

"This very provocative policy did not shake out our command. We engaged brutal, blood thirsty repression. The French army is not like a Prussian army—One of blood murderers.

"Moderation, however is not weakness. They are wrong who think our patience unlimited.

"We desire to force the Ruhr magnates to give up a part of their immense war profits for reconstruction of our devastated areas. We intend to stay as long as is necessary, and will use all means we possess to achieve these ends," the statement continued.

"We have carefully studied our opportunities with a view to attaining our ends without risk.

"The allied governments will not continue in the way they have begun. They will impose their will and break the will of their adversaries.

"Those who indulge in sabotage and those offenders will be expelled. More general penalties soon will be decided upon. It will then be possible to say where the mad policy of the Berlin government has led Germany."

Oswego—I. O. Feverda, in qualifying for justice of the peace here, has offered to banquet the first couple appearing before him to be married.

Goshen—The cost of "dying" has been boosted here with an announcement by the sextons of local cemeteries that they would charge fifty cents more for digging graves.

Tired, Nervous Mothers

are the direct cause of much unhappiness in our homes; their condition irritates and wears upon the husband and often ruins a child's disposition. This condition of the mother is often due to some weakness which makes her entirely unfit to perform her household duties and bear the strain upon her nerves that governing children involves. Every woman who finds herself in this condition should remember that statistics prove that 98 out of every 100 women who suffer from female ills are helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and lose no time in giving it a fair trial.

AMUSEMENTS

Wm Russell At Mystic

William Russell, the William Fox star, will be seen at the Mystic today in his latest Fox production "The Great Night". In this picture, which deals with the operations of a gang of jewel thieves, Russell plays the part of heir of the owner of a large jewelry establishment, who obtains a position on the police force to escape the attentions of women who are seeking to intrigue him into matrimony in order to obtain his money. The young man's father had stipulated in his will that unless the son marry within a certain time he shall not share in the estate.

It is said in this picture Russell excels anything he has ever done. The story was written by Joseph F. Poland, a noted writer of screen stories whose successes are numerous.

Howard M. Mitchell directed the production and has done excellent work with good material.

From advance reports the story is woven in a novel way, and the solution of the plot is retained until the last few seconds. It is said to be one of the most interesting photoplays that has been booked for the Mystic Theatre this season.

Scenes Laid In Spain

In "Fascination," Miss Murray's latest production, presented by Robert Z. Leonard at the Princess again today, the famous Metro star turns to Spain for her background.

In "Fascination" she appears as the daughter of a Spanish father and an American mother. The combination of the Latin temperament and the Anglo-Saxon gives Miss Murray a wonderful opportunity to do remarkable acting as Dolores De Lisa. She portrays the part of a young girl who revolting against the chaperonage of an aunt, decides to give herself a holiday. Disguising herself in a black wig and holiday garb she attends a bull fight against the wishes of her aunt. At the bull fight she meets Carrita, a handsome young torero, who fascinates her immediately. It is this fascination that supplies the main motive for the play for under its spell Dolores becomes involved in a series of breath-taking incidents.

The scenes are elaborate and lavish. All maintain the romantic flavor of Spain, and are complete in technical detail.

In "Fascination" Mae Murray adds another famous characterization to her already notable gallery of portraits. All the primitive passion of the Spanish girl is conveyed strikingly by the popular star. In this picture too, she performs several Spanish dances which even natives declare are every bit the original.

"The Bat" At The Shubert-Murat

Each season there is always one big hit that almost all the theatregoers look forward to and count upon seeing. After long delay, caused by its unprecedented popularity in New York at the Morosco Theatre, this offering of the year, "The Bat", will be at the Shubert-Murat Theatre, Indianapolis, for the entire week of February 5 with matinee Wednesday and Saturday matinees at popular prices.

This is not the same company which played here last season, but is a more important organization, and is the identical company which recently broke 14 different dramatic records in New York City over the "Subway Circuit."

By remaining at the Morosco more than two years, "The Bat" set a new long-run record. And it also crashed all records in every other city in which it has been offered, including London and Chicago, not to mention the important centers from coast to coast where special companies were sent in the piece.

Of course broken records are not important in themselves to the general public, except that they indicate exceptional merit in a play. It is not a case of following the crowd with a theatrical offering, but the fact that a play has pleased countless millions indicates that it will please and entertain others.

Members of the cast are Norma Phillips, Robert Gleckler, Julia Stuart, Herman Lieb, Ursula Ellsworth, Charles Gotthold, Courtney White, Arthur J. O'Keefe, Robert Stevens and Robert Barrat.

Senator Borah Again Presents Resolution Urging President to Call Conference on Reparations

MAY NOT BE FAVORABLE

Statesman Admits That He Will Have to Use Strategy if he is to Get Expression From Senate

By LAWRENCE MARTIN
U. S. Staff Correspondent

Washington, Jan. 31—In the face of certain administration opposition Senator Borah has introduced a resolution urging and requesting President Harding to invite all the nations concerned to an economic conference to attempt settlement of the reparations and kindred problems.

Borah's resolution was identical with the exception of one word, with the one he presented as an amendment to the naval appropriation bill, and which he withdrew when administration spokesmen in the senate assured him that a foreign policy was being outlined which the resolution might embarrass.

If he is to get an expression from the senate on his resolution, Borah will have to employ strategy, he admitted today. With the administration opposed to it and determined to stick to a program of international matters has no place, it will be difficult for Borah to have his proposal considered.

Borah's purpose in introducing it was two-fold—first, to keep the economic conference idea before the public and keep public opinion alive on it, and second, to be ready should an opportunity appear for senatorial action on the question.

So far as is known, President Harding and Secretary of State Hughes are no more in favor of Borah's plan today than they were previously. Taking their cue from the executive departments, senate leaders therefore will try to stifle Borah's resolution.

For the present Borah will let the resolution lie on the table to be called up when a good opportunity presents itself.

10:30 o'clock.Mr. Reed, who had been residing in Fort Thomas for the past two years, had been in failing health since October, 1921, when he suffered a stroke of paralysis, from the effects of which he never fully recovered.Mr. Reed was identified with the business interests of Rushville for a period of almost forty years. He came to this city from St. Paul, Shelby county, in 1882 and remained until the later part of 1920 when he retired from the active management of the elevator business, which has since been conducted by his son, Rich Reed, who was his partner.Mr. Reed during his residence in Rushville was large stockholder and director of the Rushville Natural Gas company, a stockholder in the Rushville National bank, a director for a number of years of the Rushville Telephone company, conducted the Flush Stock farm for the training of fast horses and also operated a farm of 170 acres two miles east of the city. The deceased was president of the Board of Trade when this institution was in operation here and at one time a member of the Riverside Park company. Mr. Reed also

AMERICAN DEBT TERMSSettlement Includes Funding Of More Than Four Billion Dollars Of British Debt

WILL RUN FOR 62 YEARS

London, Jan. 31.—Great Britain today accepted American terms for payment of the debt to the United States.This decision was reached after Stanley Baldwin, chancellor of the exchequer, had made a report at Washington for settlement of the debt question. The full cabinet has been in session for only a few minutes at No. 10 Downing Street when the official announcement was made.The terms of the settlement includes funding of more than four billion dollars of the British debt to the United States.Settlement in sixty-two years with interest at three percent for the first ten years and three and one half percent thereafter, a half of one percent at the same time being paid to provide for extinguishment of the principal.Between the time the debt was contracted in 1917 and the date of final settlement of the funding terms the British will be charged only for 1 and one fourth per cent interest instead of five per cent specified in the demand notes held by the government.KICKED IN FACE BY HORSE

OF CASH, JEWELRYTwo Masked Bandits Hold Up Martinsville Interurban Car Near Maywood Tuesday Night

SHOT SHATTERS HEADLIGHT

Robbers Jerk Off Trolley Wire And Line Passengers Up In Darkness
And Search ThemIndianapolis, Ind. Jan. 31.—Twenty passengers on a Martinsville interurban were held up by two masked robbers last night near Maywood and robbed of $1,000 in cash and jewelry.Shots from the bandits guns rang out at stop three just south of Maywood. There was a screeching of brakes and the car came to a stop.
The trolley was jerked off the wire and the car thrown in darkness.All passengers were ordered out of the car and lined up. While one of the bandits covered them with a revolver, the other hurriedly searched them. The only one they missed was motorman Ollie Smith of Martinsville. The man behind the gun spoke to his companion just as Smith was to have been searched.
The fellow turned away and apparently thought he had finished the job."Hah Doe," the searcher said to Dr. Comer of Mooresville, but the doctor was not able to recognize the man.After the search, all were ordered back into the car and the trolley was replaced on the wire. One of the bandits went into the car and found a watch that a passenger had attempted to conceal under a cuspidor.One of the shots shattered the headlight on the interurban. The others entered the front and rear ends of the car without injuring anyone.Sheriff George Snider and the police department passed the buck back and forth today over the question of who shall conduct and investigation of the crime and assume responsibility of finding the robbers.WILLIAM CAULEY, SR.

OF CHRISTIANITYW. M. McClean Work Says It
Broad Enough For All Nations,
All Conditions, All Temperments

FIRST OF SERMON SERIES

Evangelist at United Presbyterian Church Throws Out Challenge to Men and WomenBefore a crowd that filled the auditorium of the First United Presbyterian church, Tuesday night, the Rev. W. McClean Work of Richmond threw out a challenge to men and women looking for something worth all their energy and enthusiasm and talent, saying that Christianity alone was big enough to satisfy the demand.Mr. Work, who is conducting a two weeks series of meetings in the local church, began a series of four sermons Tuesday night on the theme "The Four Dimensions of Salvation."The subject of the first sermon was "The Breadth of Salvation." The text for the entire series is in Ephesians 3:18, "That ye may comprehend with all saints what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height."The speaker said in part: "It is characteristic of the large minded Paul that he should have begun this characterization of the genius of Christianity with the word breadth."If salvation were confined to a few persons of a certain nation or condition or temperament or creed, then whether it were long or deep or high would be of no interest to the others of us. So first of all he would give us the scope of it."It is broad enough for all nations. All other religions have been to a large extent local. They have no appeal to the people in other parts of the world from which they had arisen. They have all failed of world conquest because they did not fit all peoples. And yet today the sun never sets upon the followers of the Christian faith.""It is broad enough for all conditions. King and peasant, scholar and African Hottentot, society leaders and scrub women all find the consummation of their ideals, the end of their hopes in Jesus of Nazareth.""It is broad enough for all temperments. There are three old men in Old Testament history of whose sepulchre we have record. They are Enoch the mystic, Moses the practical and Elijah the impulsive. God appealed to Enoch through his heart, to Moses through his mind, to Elijah through his will and God still uses every avenue of approach in winning

Near Laurel, Struck In Head
With Butt End Of Revolver

WHITE MULE GETS THE BLAME

Tom Hammond, age about 30 years a resident of Cracker Ridge, near Laurel, was rushed to the Dr. Sexton hospital here Tuesday night; to undergo an operation for the removal of a piece of skull, and unless complications arise, the physicians are hopeful for his recovery.According to the report, Hammond and another man of that community had overimbibed in "white mule" one night recently, and in a controversy which followed, Hammond was struck over the forehead with the butt-end of a revolver, and his skull was crushed above the nose.Dr. H. P. Metcalf of New Salem attended his injuries, which at first were not regarded as being serious, but the young man did not recover as well as expected. He continued to grow worse and was brought here to undergo an operation on his skull to remove a piece of the bone.Dr. Metcalf reported today that the patient was getting along as well as could be expected, and had a chance for recovery.

of a "man hole" was dropped on his

TRY SULPHUR ON AN ECZEMA SKIN

Costs Little and Overcomes Trouble
Almost Over Night

Any breaking out of the skin, even fiery, itching eczema, can be quickly overcome by applying Menth-Sulphur, declares a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, this sulphur preparation instantly brings ease from skin irritation, soothes and heals eczema right up and leaves the skin clear and smooth.

It seldom fails to relieve the torment without delay. Sufferers from skin trouble should obtain a small jar of Rowles Menth-Sulphur from any good druggist and use it like cold cream. —Advertisement took place. The men were caught single handed by Robert Dewey, New York City, a visitor at Langley Field, who was deputized by a magistrate.

Dewey, with Lieutenant Clarence

Horton, stopped an automobile three miles from Hampton in which the soldiers were travelling. Dewey ordered both men out, disarmed them and marched them to his machine, in which they were taken to Hampton and turned over to the police.

The money, with the exception of $2,800, was recovered. It was found in small amounts in different parts of the men's clothing, it was said.

The men will be given a court martial at Langley Field, army authorities announced.

No more Rheumatism

S. S. is the Great Builder of Red Blood-Cells and Rheumatism

Must Go Just Try It

"Rheumatism? Me? No, indeed, it's all gone, every bit of it! It's sunshine and joy for me now for the first time in years. I feel a wonderful glory again in the free motion. I used to have when my mother was living. Look at my hands and this of the lists and swelling they used to have. I bend over to the floor. I haven't been able to do that in many years. I can thank S. S. for it all! To me it was a rising sun of joy and liberty. Brothers and sisters in misery, do not close your eyes and think that health-free motion and strength are gone from you forever! It is not. It is here and now for all of you. S. S. is waiting to help you. When you increase the number of your red blood cells, the entire system undergoes a tremendous change. Everything depends on blood strength. Blood which is minus sufficient red cells leads to a loss of strength. Rheumatism is one of the worst. S. S. is the great blood builder, blood builder, muscle strengthener, nerve invigorator. It stops skin eruptions, too, plump blackheads, acne, boils, eczema. It builds up run down tired men and women, beautifies complexion, makes the skin firmer. Start S. S. today. It is sold at all drug stores in two sizes. The larger size bottle is the more economical.

It is broad enough for all creeds. Creeds are peculiarly the property of churches so that there may be continuity in their service.

Men may differ on the theory of inspiration but they have the same Christ. They may differ upon modes of baptism but they have the same Christ. They differ upon the sacrament of the Lord's Supper but they have the same Christ. They may differ upon the systems of church government but they have the same Christ.

Christianity is the only thing this world contains that is worthy the investment of the last ounce of your energy, the last atom of your talent and it will pay you more dividends than anything else in which you can spend yourself."

Mr. Work will preach tonight on "The Length of Salvation." Services begin at 7:30.

If the weather is fair there will be special music at the services Thursday night. The quartette from the Reid Memorial church of Richmond will be present and will give three special numbers. This is the church of the Rev. Mr. Work who is preaching this evening.

The quartette is composed of Miss Pearl Crimbaugh, soprano; Mrs. Wilson Magaw, contralto; Frank Funk, tenor and Hugh Foss, basso.

Mrs. Hugh Foss is the organist. Three of the four members of the quartette are soloists.

Opposition Grows

The sentiment against the county unit bill introduced in the state legislature, proposing a radical change in county school administration, apparently has sounded the death of the measure. From every quarter comes the objection that since the bill provides for such a decided change in the methods of conducting the schools, it should be given more serious deliberation than is possible to give to it during the short time the legislature is in session.

If the bill is defeated, certainly the suggestions that are contained in the school survey made by experts should not be lost, because they were obtained at great expense at the instance of the legislature two years ago. They might be used at a later date although it is possible that they would not be applicable two years hence.

Some of those who oppose the bill are using unfair methods, however, in alluding to the fact that the township trustees just elected would be legislated out of office. This is not the case as the measure provides they shall continue in control of the schools until their term of office expires.

It Helps Some

And incidentally there is a distinct improvement in the optical trade. Men are discarding their glasses, or having new lenses inserted.

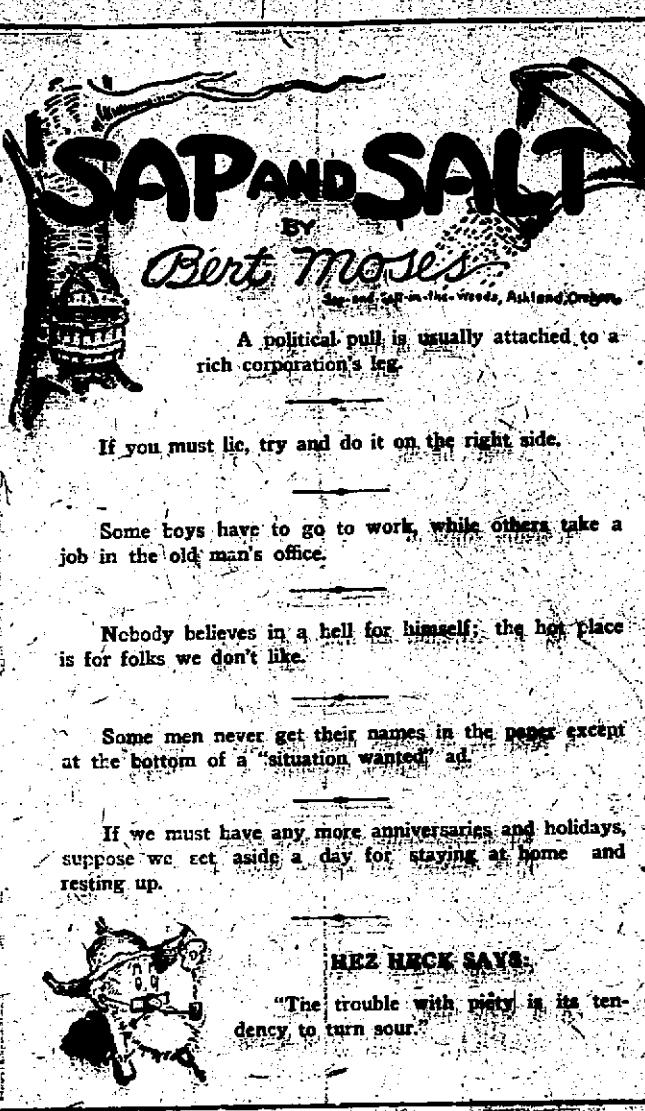

There isn't so much to see now. And glasses that magnify at a distance are not so much in demand. Every change helps some, either way it goes.

Prison For Commercialized Vice

The death of a leading movie actor as a result of addiction to drugs will cause a momentary and somewhat hysterical crusade against the drug peddlers, after which the traffic will be permitted to go on under a system of light fines, that merely serves as a substitute for a license system. Nothing but jail sentences will ever effectively check a class of crimes conducted on a commercial basis.

Profits, Not Credits, The Need

It is truthfully remarked by a contemporary that you cannot borrow yourself out of debt. Therein is a sufficient demonstration that credit legislation is one of the least of the needs of the farmer. Quite likely the paper farmers and political farmers have been the leaders in emphasizing the importance of farm credits. The dirt farmer, who has the paying to do, is not so much interested in credit as he is in profits. He is getting only 35 cents of the dollar the consumer pays for his products, and he wants more. How to get more of the dollar, is his chief concern.

PEOPLE'S SAYSO

As to The County Unit School Law

With your permission, I would like to have a little say as to the county unit school bill now pending before the state legislature.

A few short years ago an edict went out from the state board of health that the little red school house was unsanitary and would have to be supplanted with something better, and then the township trustee must haul all pupils of a certain age, and of a specific distance from school, all of which the township trustee did like a good little boy. And mind you, the "dear people" had not a word to say about it. All of this cost the "dear people" millions of dollars and in some places the buildings are not done yet. I saw a house recently that I was told was not quite completed.

I was told all of this had created a bonded debt in the townships of the state that will take years to pay. By that time these will have an entire new set of new school officers with new and improved and up-to-date school ideas and supplant these antiquated schools that may be in existence under this proposed efficient and up-to-date school system.

I have been a close observer of the school system of our state for thirty years and have heard quite a number of our school people talk on an extro the wonderful efficiency of our school system and the efficient girls and boys we are turning out every year splendidly equipped to meet the duties and responsibilities of life as men and women of the near future.

Assuming that school survey commission (which I am told cost the state $15,000) is right in its deduction, who is to blame? Certainly not the people, for as pointed out above, they gave like good little men; they gave everything they were asked to give. Who let the state get down to 17th place? When big business gets a man not up to their requirements, they let him out. The similitude is obvious. Why not the same procedure in public business?

I met and had quite a talk with the State Superintendent of Public Instruction recently (Mr. Burris). Among other objections submitted to him, as well as those hinted at above, was the question of added cost with resulting increase in taxes. He tried to tell me that it would not increase the taxes. My mind reverts back four years when Jim Goodrich gained the present "Scientific tax" bill through the legislature and when the "dear people" realized what had been done to them, they raised a holy and a justified howl. So, when the "dear people" wake up to the true significance of the situation if this bill becomes a law with the added expense that is bound to follow, I think there will be a mild protest at least.

It seems to me, too, that it would be well to have a talk with the State Superintendent of Public Instruction and when the "dear people" realize what had been done to them, they raised a holy and a justified howl. So, when the "dear people" wake up to the true significance of the situation if this bill becomes a law with the added expense that is bound to follow, I think there will be a mild protest at least.

It seems to me, too, that it would be the rankest kind of injustice to the trustees elected last fall after they had spent their time and money to get elected and then of the only duty connected with the office that their is any honor in (the schools) and subject them in a large measure ultimately to state control, as is our present tax control.

In conclusion, Mr. Editor, for the sake of argument let me admit that this proposed school law will do what is claimed for it (which I do not for a minute admit, in view of what I have said in this article) is it an opportune time in view of the great expense, time and inconvenience that the building of these splendid new school buildings has entailed upon the people and but a few of them paid for yet, to launch such radical and sweeping change in our public school system?

Visitors Pile up Three Field Goals in Last Three Minutes of Half— Webb Girls Won Opener.

The Webb high school knocked Raleigh a curve Tuesday night at Raleigh, by the count of 46 to 19, in a fast game, featured by the accurate goal shooting of the Webb team. The first half was a thriller, and during the early part Raleigh maintained a lead after tying the score at four points.

Then the score was 6 to 4, 7 to 4 and 7 to 6 in favor of Raleigh, but soon Webb took the lead again 8 to 7, only to have Raleigh cage another goal, and the see-saw affair continued until three minutes before the period closed, with Raleigh leading 13 to 12. In the last three minutes Webb ran up to 18, and Raleigh trailed at 13 at the close of the half.

At the opening of the second period, Webb displayed a flashy comeback, and bewildered the Raleigh team, scoring 28 points to Raleigh's 6.

Osborn led in scoring for Webb, with 7 goals and Craig for Raleigh with 5. Other players on the Webb team showed remarkable ability for the basket, and excelled in floor work. Webb is still without the services of their star forward, Talbert, who is suffering from an injured hand.

The first quarter ended 2 to 0 in favor of Webb; the second quarter 10 to 2; the third quarter 11 to 8, and the final result 14 to 10. INDOOR TRACK

Fighting and B. B. Money

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Jan. 31. "Save boxing" and "For the good of baseball" are two of the chestnuts of modern times. They are slogans for campaigns that have nothing to do with sport.

Boxing and major baseball are not sports—they are highly commercialized amusements.

If boxing hasn't sufficient virtue to save itself, it ought to be lost.

When club owners ask the public to do something "for the good of baseball," it is just the same as appealing to the public "Come and help me make more money."

Baseball isn't the national pastime and neither is boxing. If both were to be stopped by law, the nation would go ahead just the same.

More real citizens by far are engaged in playing tennis, golf, billiards, handball, and other forms of amusement than in baseball or boxing.

Boxing is a good form of entertainment when it is considered merely as such. The trouble is that those interested in boxing for what they get out of it try to make it appear as something else.

Professional boxing is nothing but prize fighting and the men engaged in professional boxing are prize fighters, no matter by what other name they are called.

To refer to boxing as the "mainly art of self-defense" is silly and it is done for the purpose of covering up of what it really is.

Very few professional boxers could take care of themselves in a hand-to-hand encounter. Few of them showed an inclination toward real fighting when they had the opportunity in 1917. Their idea of self-defense was to stay at home.

Most of them went to training camps as instructors. One of them, a world's champion up to the present time, was discharged from a cantonment in Ohio because he would not obey the few regulations that the camp commandant laid down for him.

What good the American soldier got out of learning to box when he went into action is a mooted question. Boxers say that the instructions made the American army and won the war.

It is doubtful, however, if Sergeants Woodfill or York were boxing champions of their company, or if they even knew how to block or lead. Both knew how to shoot and that's what was really necessary when they got down to it.

Boxing in modern times largely is a profession taken up for the purpose of getting rich by certain classes of citizens who would have a tough time earning a living in anything but a white suit.

If they do not know enough to keep their own game clean and on the level, it should not be saved.

It will take more than an organization of idealistic "sportsmen" to save boxing, when the men in the game do their best to kill it.

There are some exceptions. Perhaps there are a dozen fine citizens in the boxing game. They must feel mighty lonesome and terribly ashamed at times.

Promoters of professional baseball cannot be criticized so severely. The players as a whole are of a type slightly more advanced than prize fighters. Perhaps they don't get the chances that the prize fighters do.

When the major league club owners talk about doing things for the good of baseball and the grand old national pastime, they should not be censured. They are deserving only of sympathy.

Professional boxing can be shown in its true light by figures from Madison Square Garden. In the first twelve days of 1923, the total receipts for prize fights at the Garden were in excess of $151,000.

Charles Stoneham, owner of the Giants, spoke for baseball when he said four extra Sunday dates at the Polo Grounds next season would mean $100,000 for him.

Professional boxing is nothing but prize fighting and the men engaged in professional boxing are prize fighters, no matter by what other name they are called.

How is Dr. Cone today, gang. Are you hittin' the basket any better, after trying his medicine?

NOT MUCH OF A GAME,
JUST A CLOSE ONE

Marvin' up a few, our old side kick at Newcastle, enlightens us with the following, which we can't figure out the exact meaning. We leave it to you:

The Newcastle high school team faces another busy week, playing at Rushville Thursday night and taking on Marion here Saturday night. Newcastle has a one-point win over Rushville to its credit and many expect the team to show Marion a real battle. The game at Rushville will likely not be much of a game, except to be close. Mendenhall will undoubtedly save his players for Marion and Coach Jones of Rushville will likely save his team for an invitational tournament to be played there Saturday.

Then in his most sympathizing manner because Newcastle hasn't won many more games than Rushville, he follows in with this:

Rushville played in tough luck losing to both Shelbyville and Elwood during the past week-end. It's all right, Rushville, better lose to that class of teams than win from Five Points or Mays Station.

LEST WE FORGET, NEWCASTLE

Eaton, a little dot on the map, north of Muncie, almost surprised Newcastle a couple of weeks ago, when the final score was 29 to 25.

ALL WHO BELIEVE THIS,
STAND ON THEIR HEADS

Connerville won out Saturday night over Brookville at Brookville, by the close score of 19 to 18. The newspaper at Connerville said it was an easy victory, and that they wanted Brookville to feel friendly, and are makin' 'em from all points toward them by not piling up a score. The first half ended 9 to 8. Hittin' 'em never saw a one point game, an easy affair, and when it comes to being kind to an opponent, we can't imagine it from Connerville.

Our menu Saturday will be basketball for breakfast, dinner and supper.

THOSE DAYS HAVE GONE
FOREVER

Just fifteen years ago tonight, the Rushville high school basketball team played down at Shelbyville. Sure you guessed it the first time, Shelbyville won, 19 to 18, in what was termed a football game, because of its roughness. In those days the schools didn't know what a coach was, and the school teachers of the two schools, acted as referee and umpire. The fans had to be encouraged to attend, and students were given five tickets to sell, turning back $1.00 and keeping either the extra ticket, or the two-bit.

All eyes toward Blue Ridge tonight. Moscow and Milroy will swap goals with each other in an effort to see who can throw the most of 'em. Means of Moscow, the coach, and Beasley, the coach of Milroy, each are confident. The winner of this game may be looked upon as one of the leading contenders in the county tourney here Saturday.

MAYBE THEY WILL MEET
MUNCIE AGAIN

Shelbyville papers said their team waded through the Rushville defense like a sieve. If it was as easy as that, we can't figure out, why it was necessary for 'em to take such long shots at the basket. Shelby is still feelin' good because they won't have to meet Franklin again this year.

Lebanon plays at Connerville Friday night, and we wonder if that friendly spirit will prevail then.

Come on Newcastle. Bring your best. We're hittin' the basket now, and are makin' 'em from all points on the floor. Our team needs good practice for the tourney.

Don't forget its Thursday night, instead of Friday.

Sure, we're still pickin' Anderson.

WEBB PILES 'EM UP

Webb high school gave Raleigh a terrible drubbing last night, 46 to 19, and John Geraghty's team will have to be figured well near the top in the county honor roll. Of course John has them figured for the top, and he might be right, for all we know.

Shootin' 'em in the News last night gave Mark Bills a send-off, together with a picture of the DePauw college star. Mark is a Rush county boy, hailing from Washington township, and by the way is the son of Fred Bills, the well known referee.

BILLS TO HAVE TWO KINDS OF COURTS NOW

Speaking of referee Bills, we made a discovery today that he has been drawn for jury service in the local court for the next term of court, which begins Monday. The referee will have a new kind of game to play, but we would just as leave let him referee our case in that kind of a court, as on the playing court.

Bills had better have the court arrange the court calendar, according to his basketball dates, or else there might be a conflict someplace along the line.

COMPARISON with other cars in the same price class as to materials, construction, riding qualities and economy of operation is but further evidence of the reason why there is such a demand for Overland and Willys-Knight cars.

75% of all automobiles sold today are of but three different makes! Overland is one of them. 90% of all automobiles sold today are of eight different makes!
The Willys-Knight is another of them.

WILLYS-OVERLAND, Inc., is the only manufacturer which, in the Overland and Willys-Knight, produces two out of the eight most popular cars in the world.

INVESTIGATE the used car market and you will discover that used Overlands of present design, move at good prices, and Willys-Knight cars are rare among used car stocks.

UNLESS you are familiar with the splendid performance records of the present-day Overland and Willys-Knight, you cannot fully appreciate the reason for the public preference for these two cars.

AND at their new prices, they offer sales possibilities greater than ever before in their history.

If you have, or can command the facilities to establish a high-grade repair shop and local Sales organization write.

"All medicines and doctors for stomach trouble proved worthless in my case. Everybody recommended something else and nothing helped, so I became a doubting Thomas as to any cure. mand, are stationed.

The occupation of the Ruhr has settled down to a conflict over control of the railroads. Coal is choking the pit-heads and smothering possibilities of further production. Unless it is moved soon mining will have to cease.

The Germans refuse to get transportation in working condition, operate towers or guard the main line. German rail workers met each appearance of the military with a prompt strike. Railway men of the Mayence district proclaimed a walk-out this morning.

France and Belgium have reached an agreement whereby General DeGoutte shall have supreme command in the Ruhr until two commissioners, one French the other Belgium are appointed and take up joint control at Dusseldorf.

General DeGoutte's first act was to warn inhabitants of the newly occupied areas that more drastic measures of repression may be expected shortly if the Germans continue their hostile attitude of passive resistance. This the citizens of the Ruhr will today, showing no sign of yielding to French threats. Reports from Dusseldorf indicated the Germans there were planning fresh sabotage.

French intend to stay.

Dusseldorf Jan. 31—The French intend to stay in the Ruhr until German profiteers have given up a portion of their immense war profits for reconstruction of devastated France. General DeGoutte declared in a statement to the press today.

The Germans were mistaken, the statement said if they thought French statement was unlimited.

The German government has done its utmost to create general rebellion in the Ruhr," DeGoutte declared.

"Wisdom of the workmen has checked this plan.

"This very provocative policy did not shake out our command. We hewed brutal, blood thirsty repression. The French army is not like a Prussian army—One of blood murderers.

"Moderation, however is not weakness. They are wrong who think our patience unlimited.

"We desire to force the Ruhr magnates to give up a part of their immense war profits for reconstruction of our devastated areas. We intend to stay as long as is necessary, and will use all means we possess to achieve these ends," the statement continued.

"We have carefully studied our opportunities with a view to attaining our ends without risk.

"The allied governments will not continue in the way they have begun. They will impose their will and break the will of their adversaries.

"Those who indulge in sabotage and those offenders will be expelled. More general penalties soon will be

Oswego—I. O. Feverda, in qualifying for justice of the peace here, has offered to banquet the first couple appearing before him to be married.

Tired, Nervous Mothers

are the direct cause of much unhappiness in our homes; their condition irritates and wears upon the husband and often ruins a child's disposition. This condition of the mother is often due to some weakness which makes her entirely unfit to perform her household duties and bear the strain upon her nerves that governing children involves. Every woman who finds herself in this condition should remember that statistics prove that 98 out of every 100 women who suffer from female ills are helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and lose no time in giving it a fair trial.

Wm Russell At Mystic

William Russell, the William Fox star, will be seen at the Mystic today in his latest Fox production "The Great Night". In this picture, which deals with the operations of a gang of jewel thieves, Russell plays the part of heir of the owner of a large jewelry establishment, who obtains a position on the police force to escape the attentions of women who are seeking to intrigue him into matrimony in order to obtain his money. (The young man's father had stipulated in his will that unless the son marry within a certain time he shall not share in the estate.)

It is said in this picture Russell excels anything he has ever done. The story was written by Joseph F. Poland, a noted writer of screen stories whose successes are numerous.

Howard M. Mitchell directed the production and has done excellent work with good material.

From advance reports the story is woven in a novel way, and the solution of the plot is retained until the last few seconds. It is said to be one of the most interesting photo plays that has been booked for the Mystic Theatre this season.

Scenes Laid In Spain

In "Fascination," Mac Murray's latest production, presented by Robert Z. Leonard at the Princess again today, the famous Metro star turns to Spain for her background.

In "Fascination" she appears as the daughter of a Spanish father and an American mother. The combination of the Latin temperament and the Anglo-Saxon gives Miss Murray a wonderful opportunity to do remarkable acting as Dolores De Lisa. She portrays the part of a young girl who revolts against the chaperonage of an aunt, decides to give herself a holiday. Disguising herself in a black wig and holiday garb she attends a bull fight against the wishes of her aunt. At the bull fight she meets Carrita, a handsome young torero, who fascinates her immediately. It is this fascination that supplies the main motive for the play for under its spell Dolores becomes involved in a series of breath-taking incidents.

The scenes are elaborate and lavish. All maintain the romantic flavor of Spain, and are complete in technical detail.

In "Fascination" Mac Murray adds another famous characterization to her already notable gallery of portraits. All the primitive passion of the Spanish girl is conveyed strikingly by the popular star. In this picture too, she performs several Spanish dances which even natives declare are every bit the original.

MAY BE HEARD EITHER PLACE

Each season there is always one big hit that almost all theatregoers look forward to and count upon seeing. After long delay, caused by its unprecedented popularity in New York at the Morosco Theatre, this offering of the year, "The Bat", will be at the Shubert-Murat Theatre, Indianapolis, for the entire week of February 5 with matinee Wednesday and Saturday matinees at popular prices.

This is not the same company which played here last season, but is a more important organization, and is the identical company which recently broke 14 different dramatic records in New York City over the "Subway Circuit".

By remaining at the Morosco more than two years, "The Bat" set a new long-run record. And it also crashed all records in every other city in which it has been offered, including London and Chicago, not to mention the important centers from coast to coast where special companies were sent in the piece.

Of course broken records are not important in themselves to the general public, except that they indicate exceptional merit in a play. It is not a case of following the crowd with a theatrical offering, but the fact that a play has pleased countless millions indicates that it will please and entertain others.

Members of the cast are Norma Phillips, Robert Glaetzer, Julia Sturt, Herman Lieb, Ursula Ellsworth, Charles Gotthold, Courtney White, Arthur J. O'Keefe, Robert Stevens and Robert Barrat.

Senator Borah Again Presents Resolution Urging President to Call Conference on Reparations

MAY NOT BE FAVORABLE

Statesman Admits That He Will Have to Use Strategy if he is to Get Expression From Senate

By LAWRENCE MARTIN
Staff Correspondent

Washington, Jan. 31.—In the face of certain administration opposition Senator Borah has introduced a resolution urging and requesting President Harding to invite all the nations concerned to an economic conference to attempt settlement of the reparations and kindred problems.

Borah's resolution was identical with the exception of one word, with the one he presented as an amendment to the naval appropriation bill, and which he withdrew when administration spokesmen in the senate assured him that a foreign policy was being outlined which the resolution might embarrass.

If he is to get an expression from the senate on his resolution, Borah will have to employ strategy, he admitted today. With the administration opposed to it and determined to stick to a program of international matters has no place, it will be difficult for Borah to have his proposal considered.

Borah's purpose in introducing it was two fold—first, to keep the economic conference idea before the public and keep public opinion alive on it, and second, to be ready should an opportunity appear for senatorial action on the question.

So far as is known, President Harding and Secretary of State Hughes are no more in favor of Borah's plan today than they were previously. Taking their cue from the executive departments, senate leaders therefore will try to stifle Borah's resolution.

For the present Borah will let the resolution lie on the table to be called up when a good opportunity presents itself.

GRAND JURY TO INVESTIGATE

Will Probe Fatal Shooting At Blanford Wedding Dances

Clinton, Ind., Jan. 31.—The Vermillion county grand jury will be called to investigate the fatal wedding dances at Blanford here Sunday eve when the Serbians were killed and four others including Sheriff Newlan were injured.

One person has been fined and sentenced for carrying concealed weapons and two others are under $2,000 bond, charged with inciting riot, as a result of the gun battle at the dance hall. John Cabrie was fined $50 and costs and sentenced to 60 days on the state farm.

It developed today that the dances at Blanford, at which the fatal shooting Monday morning occurred, was being held in celebration of the wedding of Mike Trkula and Christine Ciray, the girl whose brother-in law, John Radzes said was kidnapped from his home in Indianapolis by Mike last week.
